Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, For over 20 years, Earl Emme has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, St. Charles, South Dakota, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Earl mows the rights-of-way around the community, picks up trash, runs errands, and is known as the "official cookie taster"; and,

WHEREAS, Earl has given much to the community of St. Charles and the state of South Dakota during his lifetime and the community has seen fit to honor Earl with an open house; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Earl Emme's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 10, as in South Dakota, and I join Earl's many friends and relatives in thanking him for his many years of unselfish and devoted service to the community of St. Charles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
